A Peek at Our Month

Reading:

Students should be reading at least 20 minutes each night at home. All students need to be taking AR tests after finishing a book.

Math:

We are starting our unit on fractions with mini lessons on time and measurement. 20 minutes a night of assigned lessons on Moby Max - Math is recommended.

Writing:

Students are finishing informative writing with a last piece about Martin Luther King Jr. We will then move into opinion writing, ending the trimester with narrative.

Social Studies:

Native Americans and Native American culture from California.

Language:

Syllables, sentence correction, using multiple resources

Science:

Weather and Climate

Homework

Students are encouraged to take part in the alternative homework that has been sent home. Students can turn in what they've made, draw a picture, or send in an actual photo. Photos can be emailed to me at Petra.McCullough@venturausd.org.

Reminders

Saturday School

It's really important that if your student has missed any school days, then they attend Saturday School on February 2nd.

Class Dojo

Please check Class Dojo for frequent messages about assignments, tests, or classroom activities.

Birthdays

If you plan on bringing in treats for your student's birthday, please remember low sugar treats are recommended. We do have students with allergies so please check in with me if you have any concerns.

Spelling

Students will be taking a spelling test every Friday. New words will be posted on our class website every Monday. Students are encouraged to practice these words nightly.
